Venue: Lalbaba College Auditorium

Report:

Librarians' Day/ National Librarians' Day is celebrated all over India to Commemorate the birth anniversary of Dr. S.R. Ranganathan, ("Father of Library Science in India") on 12th August every year. This year Librarians' Day was celebrated by the Central Library, Lalbaba College in support with IQAC, Lalbaba College at Lalbaba College Auditorium on 12th August, 2022 (from 11.30 a.m. – 2p.m.). The Programme was started by lighting the lamp by the honourable Guest Dr. Gouri Bandyopadhyay, Asst. Library and Information Officer, G.S.I., Kolkata, Dr. Rana Chatterjee, MLA & President, Governing Body, Lalbaba College and Dr. Sanjay Kumar, Principal, Lalbaba College, Dr. Mala Aditya, Librarian, Central Library, Lalbaba College and other senior teachers. After that the main programme was inaugurated with an opening song "Akash Bhara Surya tara..", a Tagore's song by one student Anumita Chakaborty (B.Com.). Honourable Speaker, President and Principal were being welcomed by librarian Dr. Mala Aditya on stage. At the beginning of the programme, the librarian delivered her welcome address to welcome the eminent Chief guests and the other people present in the programme. She highlighted on the values of Dr. S.R. Ranganathan and of Rabindranath Tagore on the attributes of library and users of the library, programme details and its background, present activities of Lalbaba College Library and future planning of the library to work in a digital environment. President Dr. Rana Chatterjee encouraged students to use library more and more. He also promised to help the college students in their future career if the students would do well in their study. He also expressed his thanks to the Central Library for encouraging students by organizing various events such as – quiz competition, felicitation programme etc. He announces the name of prize winners in the students' category. The Principal through his speech encouraged the central library staff to do more activities for students' orientation to the library. He also encouraged the students to become regular in their college as well as in library. Dr. Chhatradhar Das, IQAC co-coordinator delivered his speech on the previous history of library and past events of the college.

CELEBRATION OF LIBRARINS' DAY 2022

In the second part of the programme i.e., in technical part speaker Dr. Gourí Bandyopadhyay, Asst. Library and Information Officer, G.S.I., Kolkata, delivered her speech on "History & Evolution of Books" with a PowerPoint presentation and after the lecture teachers and students asked questions to the speaker to clarify their doubts. Indeed it was an interactive session.

In third phase of the programme, one quiz competition was organized by the Lalbaba College Library with the help of Quiz club, Lalbaba College. The competition was among the seven candidates who were selected in the final round from elimination round. There were six rounds of questions and a round for audience also. Students, teachers, staff were very enthusiastic in this round. Three winners – first, second, third were selected in this phase.

In the last phase the highest users of the Lalbaba College Library from students', teachers' and staff category were felicitated by the central library of Lalbaba College. Books and certificates were handed over to the best users by the guests, Principal Sir, and teachers. It was a beautiful round. The whole programme was presented by Dr. Kalyan Mazumder, convener, academic sub-committee, Lalbaba College. The programme was happily ended with vote of thanks given by Dr. Bhutnath Jana, Secretary, Teachers' Council, Lalbaba College.
